

Councillor Reginald Munn, Chairman of the Libraries and Arts Committee of the City of Sheffield and Mr. Simon Sainsbury, Chairman of Sainsbury's Arts Sponsorship Committee, request the pleasure of the company of lan Davragh and Guest at a special preview of

SAINSBURY'S IMAGES FOR TODAY

a visual art competition and touring exhibition at 7.30 pm on Friday 3 December 1982 at the Graves Art Gallery, Sheffield.

Refreshments

RSVP
The Director's Office
Graves Art Gallery
Surrey Street, Sheffield S1 1XZ
Telephone (0742) 734781

The Exhibition

The 69 original works selected by the judges form a touring exhibition which is to be sent to 8 venues around the country. After opening in Sheffield on 4 December it will tour as follows:-

Craves Art Gallery

Folkestone, New Metropole Arts Centre

21 March - 24 April

Brighton, Polytechnic Gallery

7 - 27 May

Cardiff, Turner House Museum, Penarth
(part of the National Gallery of Wales)

June (dates to be confirmed)

Liverpool, Bluecoat Gallery

8 August - 3 September

Bracknell, South Hill Park Arts Centre

10 September - 7 October

Bath, Victoria Art Gallery

14 October - 10 November

Bradford, Cartwright Hall Museum and Art Gallery

17 November - 14 December
(dates to be confirmed)